

I came into this office on a Saturday they met with me took my case everyone in the office is so nice they took on this insurance company the next thing I know I got a phone call and letter they were ready for negotiations the lawyers explained to me what was going to take place and how everything worked the negotiations didn't go well that day but a few short weeks later I recieved a call the reached an agreement a couple weeks later I am here picking up a check. I never had any problems with the insurance comp. pushing me around and the staff would contact me every few weeks letting me know how everything was going. I will highly recomend this company for anyone. I will be contacting them again for any future cases I might need a lawyer for. Very nice lawyers and staff and very professional
