FINAL JUDGMENT

ON THIS DAY, came to be heard Plaintiffs' Traditional Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. The Court, having considered the Motion and supporting evidence and reasonable inferences drawn therefrom, the Response, if any, and supporting evidence and reasonable inferences drawn therefrom, and otherwise being apprised of the papers on file with Court, finds that the Motion is well-taken and should hereby be in all things GRANTED. IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that there is no genuine issue of material fact as to the issues raised in Plaintiff's Traditional and No-Evidence Motion for Summary Judgment and that said Motion is hereby GRANTED. Accordingly, the Court finds as follows:

1. Anheuser-Busch, LLC was a motor carrier for the shipment at issue.

2. Anheuser-Busch, LLC was the statutory employer of Leandre Sime.

3. Anheuser-Busch, LLC is vicariously liable for Leandre Sime's negligence, if any.
